

PREFACE

The main purposes of this book are :

- to help the student develop fluency in writing argumentative paragraphs and compositions;
- to encourage the student with numerous opportunities for bringing out his own thoughts;
- to increase the student ability to understand the practical format, the developing process of writing complete argumentative paragraph and composition in various topics;
- to help the student know how to review and evaluate each piece of written work;

- to provide the student with “Grammatical Review & Sentence Writing” in Part Three for improving his strong background of English grammar especially in sentence writing;
- to encourage the student to transfer the strategy of thought presentation gained from this book and from classroom experience into the real world of competitive life and profession.

The author would appreciate being told of any errors noticed by readers. Criticism will be welcome. In this way, any future edition of this book could be improved and corrected.

Ponlasit Noochochai

Department of English and Linguistics

Faculty of Humanities

Ramkhamhaeng University

Hua Mark, Bangkok 10240

Thailand