

PREFACE

This book has been written for the course EN 307: Appreciative Reading (การอ่านเพื่อความซาบซึ้ง). The contents are focused on an advanced level of reading beyond the comprehension stage, aiming at introducing the readers to several elements and techniques used in various types of reading passages so that they may correctly and fully understand the meaning as intended by the writers and appreciate the beauty and subtlety of the language as an enhancement to their aesthetic faculty.
